Over 80,000 visit AHOF Museum

Hours: 10:00 am - 7:00 pm daily

Since November 2012, over 80,00 people have toured The Archery Hall of Fame Museum, one of the newest additions to Bass Pro Shops in Springfield, Missouri. Located on the upper floor of Bass Pro Outdoor World, 1935 S. Campbell Ave., the 3,500 square foot facility displays a collection of some of the most unique archery memorabilia depicting the sport's history.

Years in the making, the permanent home is a dream come true for the Archery Hall of Fame. Be sure to stop by and say hello if you are in the neighborhood. Touring students check out one of the newer displays, an Alaskan Brown Bear taken by Fred Bear in 1960.

Thank you from students

Kurt Surber, AHOF Facilitator, and local Springfield archer Les Bennet look over the Allen compound prototype.

Thank You Alice Lattimer

The archery Hall of Fame would like to thank Alice Lattimer for recently donating some of her husband Dick's memorabilia to the AHOF museum.

Dick had been involved with the Archery Hall of Fame for over four decades and was inducted into the Hall in 1999.

Dick was a past Board member, served as Vice President and became President in 2008 with the passing of Founder, Dave Staples.

Frank Gandy donates Championship bow to AHOF

Top to Bottom: Frank shows his championship bow to AHOF Executive Director, Diane Miller, Margaret and Frank relax in the backyard in Bartow Florida and Frank shows us his shooting range.

Recently the AHOF had the opportunity to visit with Frank and Margaret Gandy at their home in sunny Florida.

During that time Frank graciously donated a very special tournament bow signed by personal friend Fred Bear.
